

APPI TOHOKU

If you take bullet train (Shinkansen), it takes about 2 hours 30 minutes to Morioka Station from Tokyo Station, then it takes about 50minutes to APPI by a bus.

APPI is located in the north eastern of main island of Japan. Ski resort is on the Mt. Maemori (1305m) and Mt. Nishimori (1328m) in the Hachimantai National park. Most slopes are facing north side that keeps snow condition well because of lesser direct sun hitting on slopes during the day. APPI Resort has the large scale of 21 different terrains that are similar to Europe's and America's resorts for all leaves of skiers and snowboarders.
